True friends are something you can never replace,
Treat them and love them with respect
For once they're lost, they're lost forever.

Senior Class Motto
by Tami Daughtery

ALL THE WORLD

S. Walsh / R. Steinhardt

All the world's forgiving the change is all around
And People everywhere have seen the light in what they've found
It's a happy place in the human race
When all our lives are lived forgiving

All the world's for living when love is what you find
Despair and loneliness you've got to leave them far behind
Tell the clouds to go let the feeling show
It's great when life is full of living

Everyone's aware they know to change the world we've got to care
And people all should know should have happened long ago
Or could it be that I just now found out

Life is meant to share and it means the same thing everywhere
Living everyday helping people on their way
Cause sometimes life gives everyone some doubts

Can I have time? Is it right what I feel?
At times I doubt what I normally know is real.
But right now I don't know what to do.
And it's all because of you.
I could tell you if I knew that you'd believe.

As slight and elusive as life sometimes is,
Right or wrong as we both think it might be.
I could never have denied that I need you by my side
Cause without you life don't seem that much to me.

I can see an old man cry, it's his time to die
And life no longer gives him any breaks
He hasn't got a home, no one to call his own
Still he tells no one that it is more than he can take

When the time is so unkind, an empty future plays in your mind.
When the darkness cries out to you can you escape it?
What can you do?

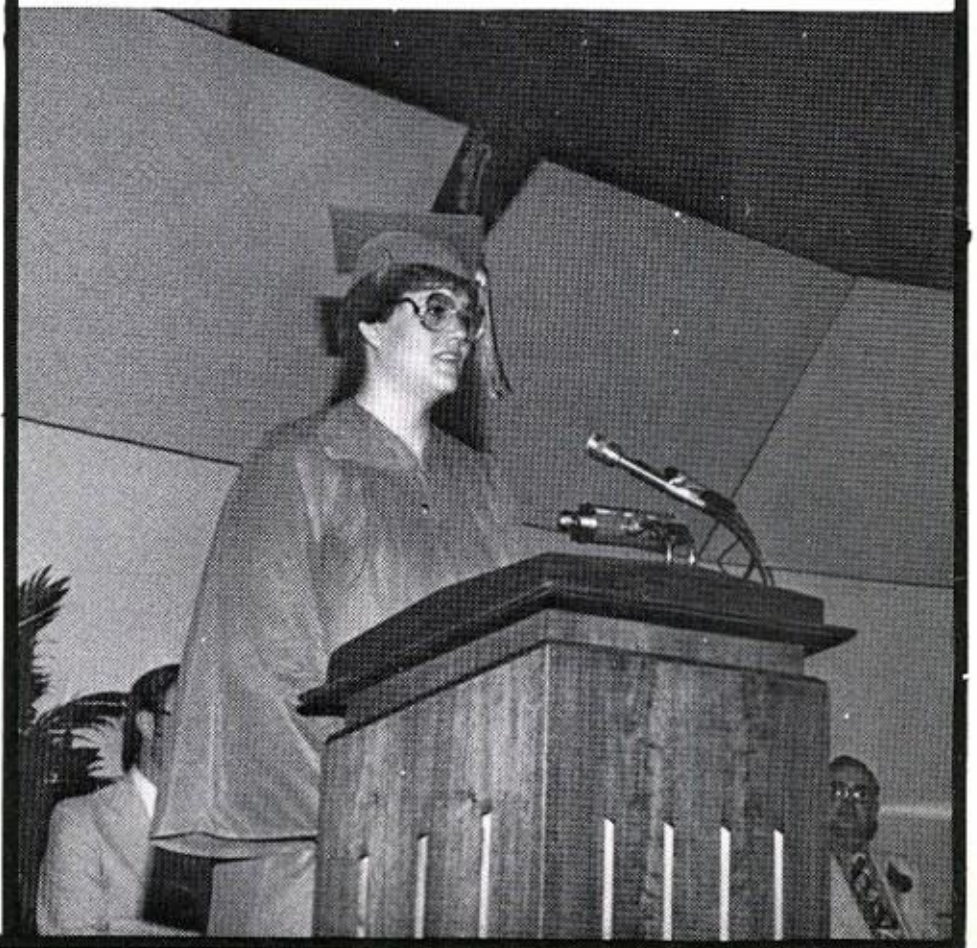

All the world's forgetting the hate that filled our hearts
The times of selfish reasoning that keeps us all apart
This world was meant to share, let them know you care
By making someone's life worth living

All the world's believing that this feeling's got to stay till all the world is living till all the world is giving till all the world is loving everyday

The "Big O" was a small and young ball club. However, these boys were in every game regardless of the strength of the opposition. Sometimes their youth and physical weakness showed up in the last few minutes of the game. They were probably the second best "AA" team in the district at the end of the year.

ACTIVITIES

Homecoming 1979

Homecoming week began Monday Oct. 1 thru Saturday Oct. 6 commencing with a Homecoming dance Saturday evening.

Activities for the week were:

Monday: the fight song was played over the audio during the bell ringing;
Tuesday: the students wore red and gray to show mercy for LaBrae; Wednesday: the students brought their tigers;
Thursday: everyone wore orange and black to show their school spirit.
Friday: the cheerleaders distributed signs to the students and faculty to wear. Unfortunately the bonfire was rained out but the cheerleaders led a spirited pep rally Friday afternoon.

The highlight of the gala week took place Friday evening when Chris November, escorted by Jim Mace, was crowned the 1979 Homecoming Queen by Denise Perry (1978 Queen).

The football game showed our football players as being aggressive and spirited to the final gun.

The week ended with the Homecoming dance Saturday evening held at the Middle School from 8:30 - 11:30 with the Gary Adair Trio providing the music for the evening.

And they called it PUPPY LOVE!
